"16th Sunday of Luke"

HYMN OF THE FEAST, BEFORE & AFTER SMALL ENTRANCE :

Eternal with the Father and the Spirit is the Word, Who of a Virgin was begotten for our salvation. As the faithful we both praise and worship Him, for in the flesh did He consent to ascend unto the cross, and death did He endure, and He raised unto life the dead, through His all-glorious resurrection.

HYMN:

Faith can accomplish great things : because of its power, the Holy Great-martyr Theodore rejoiced in the midst of flames as if he had been in refreshing water. Burned by the flames, he was offered to the Holy Trinity as delightful bread. Through his intercession, O Christ God, save our souls!

HYMN OF THE CHURCH (Save O Lord):

Save O Lord, save your people and bless your inheritance. Give victory to those who battle evil and protect us all by your holy cross.

KONTAKION:

Let us flee the boastful words of the pharisee and learn humility from the sighs of the publican; let us cry out to the Savior: Spare us, for you alone are rich in forgiveness.

SCRIPTURAL READINGS:

LECTOR: CHARLES VALEKIS

EPISTLE LESSON: II Timothy 3:10-15

TIMOTHY, my son, you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions, my sufferings, what befell me at Antioch, at Iconion, and at Lystra, what persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me. Indeed all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil men and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceivers and deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings which are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading:

Luke 18:9-14

Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee: Triodion Begins Today

The Lord said this parable, "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I get.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."
